

RE-ELECT A MAN WHO HAS DONE AN EXCELLENT JOB CHARLES EDWARD CHAPEL

CHAPEL'S MILITARY RECORD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

Charles Edward Chapel, First Lieutenant, U.S. Marine Corps, in the uniform he wore as Judge Advocate, Fifth United States Naval District, during 1936 and 1937, on the staff of the Admiral Commanding Fifth U.S. Naval District, Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia. Although not a lawyer, and in spite of the fact that he never attended a law college, he received an excellent fitness report for his duty as Judge Advocate, and additional duty as a staff officer. He was probably the youngest and most junior officer of the Navy or Marine Corps who ever served as a Judge Advocate of a large and important naval district.

In 1937, Lieutenant Chapel was transferred to Marine Barracks, Washington, D.C., where he appeared before the Naval Retiring Board, which found that he was "incapacitated for active service and that your incapacity is permanent and the result of an incident of the service."

The retiring orders read: "The Major General Commandant regrets that physical disability necessitates your separation from the active list of the Marine Corps, and wishes you many years of happiness and prosperity." This was signed by Thomas Holcomb, then Major General Commandant of the Marine Corps, who retired as a General in 1944.

AUTHOR	ANTI-COMMUNIST	CONSTITUTION	SAN DIEGO FREEWAY	NO TAX INCREASE
Chapel is the author of twenty-three major scientific and technical books on firearms, aviation, electronics and law-enforcement; the author of the Boy Scout Merit Badge Pamphlet on Aviation; and one of the authors of a new high-school text on biology.	Assemblyman Chapel fought communism by removing the Communist Party from the ballot in California by means of his A.B. 32, Chapter 1217, Statutes of 1953, now cited as Sections 2540, 2540.4, and 2540.9, Elections Code.	Chapel also fought communism by authoring and obtaining the enactment into law of his A.B. 3240, Chapter 383, Statutes of 1951, then cited as Sections 10031, 10032, and 10033, Education Code, which required the teaching of courses in the principles of State and local government, and American ideals, in all schools of California.	Assemblyman Chapel has been publicly commended by Senator Randolph Collier, Democrat, for including the San Diego Freeway in the State Highway System, and for working vigorously for its completion through his Assembly District.	Assemblyman Chapel was a member of the Joint Committee on Transportation Problems which introduced the bill on the California Freeway and Expressway System providing for the San Diego Freeway as part of the State system.	Assemblyman Chapel as a Member of the Assembly Committee on Revenue and Taxation for nearly twelve years has opposed new and increased taxes but supported essential bills for schools, veterans, senior citizens, and the physically handicapped.
ATOMIC ENERGY	TEACHERS	VETERAN	GOOD CITIZEN	ANTI-LOAN SHARKS	PROTECT BEACHES
Assemblyman Chapel was the author of Assembly Bill No. 413, which became Chapter 1810, Statutes, Vehicle Code, regarding the safe transportation of nuclear fission (atomic energy) products.	Assemblyman Chapel for nearly twelve years has received letters of commendation and thanks from officers and members of the California Teachers Association for his support of the public school system and the California Teachers Association program.	Chapel is a Member of the Veterans of the Foreign Wars of the United States. His A.B. 1846, Chapter 516, Statutes of 1951, then cited as Section 205, Revenue and Taxation Code, defines the rights of overseas veterans. In addition, he has supported the Cal-Vet farm-and-home loan laws.	Assemblyman Chapel was awarded the Sons of the American Revolution Gold Medal for Good Citizenship because he has consistently supported anti-communist bills, anti-narcotics bills, and anti-pornographic bills.	Assemblyman Chapel was the author of A.B. 3192, the first anti-loan shark (ten-per-center) law in California, which became part of Business and Professions Code in 1955. He also was the author of A.B. 1084, regulating loan sharks, which became part of Civil Code in 1957.	Chapel was the author of the amendment to A.B. 3402 of the 1955 General Session (Chapter 1724, Statutes of 1955) which prohibits oil drilling from a point north of Santa Monica to Point Vicente, near San Pedro, except where cities own their own right to vote on oil drilling, thus preserving to the cities the right of home rule.
REDONDO BEACH	APPROPRIATIONS	REDONDO BEACH HARBOR	SALT-WATER INTRUSION	MANHATTAN TIDELANDS	MANHATTAN BEACH PIER
Chapel obtained, in 1952, an emergency appropriation of $20,000 for the repair, restoration, and protection of the City of Redondo Beach. Budget Bill, Item 263.6; A.B. 1, now cited as Chapter 3, Statutes of 1952.	Chapel did not stop here. His second appropriation for Redondo Beach was in the amount of $150,000 1954 Budget Bill, Item 262.5; A.B. 1, Chapter 1, Statutes, 1954.	Chapel also obtained the appointment of the Governor's Commission to study the feasibility of a Harbor at Redondo Beach, which obtained the approval of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, resulting in the present Federal, State, and local support of the Redondo Beach Harbor.	Chapel obtained the $750,000 appropriation to combat salt water intrusion at Manhattan Beach, which was a pilot study that protected cities as far inland as Inglewood and Westchester (L.A. 45). This is Chapel's A.B. 2712, Chapter 1509, Statutes of 1951.	Chapel obtained a tidelands grant for Manhattan Beach with his A.B. 3819, Chapter 1427, Statutes of 1955.	In 1956, Chapel obtained an appropriation of $240,000 for the State of California to take title to and re-build the pier at Manhattan Beach, with provision for Los Angeles County to maintain and operate the pier, found in Budget Bill of 1956, Item 401.1; A.B. 1, Statutes of 1956.
SOUTH BAY STATE COLLEGE	NATIONAL GUARD	NO POLLUTION	NO NARCOTICS	NO SMUT BOOKS	46TH DISTRICT
Assemblyman Chapel was the author of the Assembly Bill establishing the new South Bay State College, sponsored Senate Bill 15 and was the Assembly floor leader for the passage of this bill which became part of the Education Code, Chapter 65, Statutes of 1960. Five million dollars was appropriated in 1962 for the purchase of the land.	Chapel has supported bills for California National Guard armories and will introduce in 1963 a bill for re-organization of National Guard Reserve.	Chapel was the author of A.B. 1086, Chapter 603, Statutes of 1957, Section 13005 of the Water Code and A.B. 1087, Chapter 604, Statutes of 1957, Sections 24155 to 24159, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code, protecting our beaches against pollution from sewage and other sources.	Among the many other laws of which Assemblyman Chapel was either the author or floor leader was his own A.B. 2378, enacted in 1959, to provide for a National Test for narcotic offenders. This is one of the most effective anti-narcotic laws in the California statutes.	Assemblyman Chapel has co-authored and supported bills to stop the flood of indecent literature in California. In 1963, he will introduce his own new bill based upon laws now effective in other states.	The above are only a few of the many bills and laws of which Chapel was the author, co-author, or floor leader. Every community in the Assembly District, including Venice, Del Rey, Westchester, El Segundo, Manhattan Beach, Redondo Beach, Rolling Hills, Rolling Hills Estates, Portofino Bend, San Juan Capistrano, Santa Catalina Island, is protected by Chapel's laws and what he has done!

RE-ELECT CHAPEL, HE GETS THINGS DONE!
